Center for the Study of Aging
History and Major Accomplishments

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Major Accomplishments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 2005 | Three-year award from Congress to establish the Center for the Study of Aging; funding through the Agency on Aging (only 2 yrs of funding received)
Year 1 funding: $245,000
Annette Totten, PhD hired as full-time director |
| 2006 | Center staffed by Director, Research Associate, Administrative Support, and a Graduate Research Assistant (GRA)
Year 2 funding: $391,642
Idaho Statewide End of Life Survey and Report
Establishment of CSA Advisory Board |
| 2007 | Implementation of Interdisciplinary Graduate Certificate in Gerontology
Idaho Summit on Elder Abuse and Exploitation
Osher Institute Assessment |
| 2008 | Idaho Commission on Aging (ICOA) Statewide Needs Assessment
Informal Caregivers and Health Literacy Survey |
| 2009 | Holly Beard, PhD hired as part-time director
Health & Welfare Living Well in Idaho (formerly known as Project Life) Evaluation, 2007 - present
Finding the Gaps: A State Inventory of Long-Term Care Services and Needs; conducted for the National Governors Association |
| 2010 | Sarah Toevs, PhD appointed as director
Elizabeth (Lee) Hannah engaged as research faculty
ICOA Aging and Disability Resource Center Quality Assurance Project
National Alzheimer’s Association Policy Advocacy Project
CSA Strategic Planning and Community-based Needs Assessment
Formation of Justice Alliance for Vulnerable Adults, CPEA funding; 2010 - present
Partnered with Idaho Area Health Education Center (AHEC) to promote Living Well in Idaho |
| 2011 | Denice Goodrich Liley, PhD, appointed as associate director
Idaho Summit on Elder Abuse and Exploitation and Scam Jam
Establishment of the Idaho Alzheimer’s Planning Group
Health & Welfare Fit and Fall Proof Evaluation – 2010 - present
Impact Analysis of Idaho’s Money Follows Person Medicaid Program
Intergenerational Learning Projects with students from College of Business and Economics and OSHER Institute |
| 2012 | Idaho State Center for Independent Living Employment Services Analysis
Formation of Idaho Lifespan Respite Coalition with support from ARCH
ICOA Statewide Needs Assessment
COMPASS Needs Assessment of Homebound Individuals
Passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution 112 in Support of the Development of an Idaho Plan for Alzheimer’s Disease and Related Dementias
Coordination with Nampa Family Justice Center and Boise FACES Family Justice Center on Elder Abuse Prevention Training
Submission of ARCH Lifespan Respite Infrastructure Grant with ICOA
Submission of Wraparound Legal Services Grant with Idaho Legal Aid
Justice Alliance for Vulnerable Adults (JAVA) Summit
Mike Berlin and Mary Holden join staff of Center |