• Applications to the new Masters of Athletic Training (MAT) degree program will be accepted starting Winter 2017-2018

• Classes begin in July 2018

• 50 credit hour curriculum over 24 consecutive months (2 years)

• 4 separate diagnosis and intervention courses

• 4 research and evidence based courses

• Varied clinical experiences in orthopedic and urgent care clinics, surgery, NCAA DI and DII athletic departments, physical rehabilitation, high schools, health clinics and hospitals, community sports organizations, professional sports.

Requirements for application to the MAT (subject to change)

• Admission to the Boise State University Graduate College
• 3.0 cumulative GPA or above and/or 3.0 GPA in last 60 undergraduate credits
• GRE quantitative/verbal score in the top 30th percentile
• Letters of recommendation (prior Athletic Training/Sports Medicine experience or observation preferred)
• Background check
• Interview
• Pre-requisite undergraduate coursework:
  – Anatomy & Physiology w/Labs (8 credits)
  – Chemistry w/lab
  – General Physics w/lab
  – College Algebra or higher
  – Psychology

ADVANCING HEALTH CARE FOR ATHLETES OF ALL KINDS
– Introduction to Athletic Injuries / Care & Prevention
– Exercise Physiology
– First Aid & CPR for Healthcare provider certification or equivalent
– Functional (Applied) Anatomy
– Biomechanics
– Statistics
– Nutrition

* preferred pre-requisite

An accelerated Bachelor’s to Master’s degree (3+2) 5-year program is also available to qualified Boise State University undergraduate students.

For Questions and Advising please contact:

Brittany Brillon: Assistant Program Director: atep@boisestate.edu or 208-426-1053